VERDICT PUZZLER

Jury Further Complicates Litigation Between Dr. A. H. Arp and H. L. Bullen.

CONFUSING EVEN TO LAWYERS

Finds for Full Amount for Plaintiff, But Makes Defendant Prior Concession.

The jury that heard the suit on a note for $300 of Dr. A. H. Arp against H. L. Bullen, manager of the Sylvan Liquor Cure company, of Moline, delivered a verdict in the circuit court this morning that is proving a puzzler even to the lawyers engaged in the litigation and has further complicated this extraordinary proceeding.

The issues are found for the plaintiff and the judgment fixed at the sum stated in the note with interest, a total of $185.50. Supplemental to this there is a special finding wherein it is held that the note given to Bullen by Dr. Arp, on the strength of which the former secured $300 and paid to Dimock, Gould & Co. $300 taking up a note for that sum given by the liquor cure company, with Bullen as indorser, to Arp, was to repay Bullen for his liquidation of the Dimock, Gould & Co. debt.

Word "Repay" Contrary to Verdict. The word "repay" is inconsistent with the verdict proper, the lawyers on both sides are agreed, and they have been sparring all day in court as to which was to make the first move.

W. J. Entrikin, the attorney for Dr. Arp, stated it is one of the most unusual proceedings that he has been identified with in his years of practice at the county bar. Seemingly his safest way out of the tangle would be to move for a new trial, admitting error in the verdict.

But it is claimed the defendant has the right of way and his attorneys, Well & Olmsted, may ask for the entering of judgment in accordance with the special findings, the latter having priority in consideration before the court. Should judgment be entered on the special findings it would be a victory for Bullen.

EXPOUNDERS OF THE LAW TO MEET ON THE DIAMOND

And now if there is any one in the Three-Eye league who feels that he is not amply versed in the art of ball playing he should take an afternoon off next Saturday, and go over to Davenport. At that time and place he is known that the limbs of the law, also known as lawyers, from this city and Davenport are to pit their athletic powers against each other. It is not yet known what the lineup of these famous players will be, but it is an assured fact that those who miss seeing the game will have an aching void in their lives that can never be filled. Just imagine long, lanky, small, short, boxy, sniffling law-exponents all togged out in suits defining their lovely forms, and executing all kinds of acrobatic maneuvers to the pleased spectators. If you think of these things and your heart be not caltugged out, and executing all kinds of acrobatic maneuvers for the pleased spectators. Sam Dart is captain of his Rock Island team.

Hunky Hines and his team are stopping at the Rock Island house.

Corkhill has joined the other former Three-Eye leaguers on the Clinton Independents.

Donnelly won a $5 bat for batting the first home run after the prize had been offered by a local clothing firm at Springfield.

Thomas Conroy, an outfielder, has been signed for a trial with Rock Island. He is a youngster and has been with Colorado Springs since the opening of the season. He is said to be fast.

Manager Hayes writes home to Davenport that he has signed another man and rumor has it that his name is Hass. Some say it is Hess, who has played short for Indianapolis this season.

Davenport has released Schoonhoven, the shortstop, to make room for Mike Jacobs. Schoonhoven appears in the Rockford lineup yesterday, having been sent to bat in the ninth inning.

There is a report going the rounds that the Rabbits are to give up Berte, he having been sold to a faster team. This is extremely doubtful in view of the near approach of Springfield in the pennant race.

Rain yesterday afternoon prevented all games in the Three-Eye league except the one at Bloomington with Rockford. The Bloomers won 4 to 2. Rockford could not hit Kinsella, a new member of "Conners" pitching staff. Graham was on the slab for Rockford. The defeat of Rockford moved Rock Island into sixth place.

League pitchers are fattening their averages as never before and the foul strike rule is making the batter's life a gloomy one. The public likes lots of hitting, but hits and runs are as scarce as hen's teeth this season, compared with former years, as the number of extra lining games and "shot outs" bear ample witness. Teams are finding it almost impossible to make runs against first class pitchers backed by good fielding.

The working of the foul strike rule has become open to lively argument, based on the record of the first few weeks of this season.

Ten Years in Bed.
R. A. Gray, J. P., Oakville, Ind., writes, "For 10 years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys. It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a Godsend to me." All druggists.

RIVER TRAVEL BIG

Diamond Jo Company Crowded for Accommodations From North to the Fair.

DUBUQUE IN THROUGH SERVICE

Sidney to be Brought Out of Keokuk Canal—Other News of River.

Owing to the enormous business done this year by the Diamond Jo line of steamers in carrying passengers to St. Louis, the company has scheduled the Dubuque to run between St. Paul and St. Louis, in place of making her former short trips between Rock Island and St. Louis.

Today the Dubuque made her last short trip, and will go into the through service hereafter for this season. It is also likely that the company will add the steamer Sidney to their service. The Sidney is now lying in the canal at Keokuk, and last season, and previous seasons, she ran weekly between Burlington and Keokuk, but the amount of trade handled out of those cities and the towns along the river does not nearly compensate sufficiently to keep a boat in that service.

Naturally the company looked for extraordinary heavy business this season on account of the world's fair, but the traffic far exceeded all expectations. Every boat landing here en route to the fair from St. Paul is loaded. Passengers are glad to get out.

River Rapids.
The new private pleasure yacht Roamer, of St. Paul, was in this harbor last night enroute from St. Louis, where she went about three weeks ago.

The yacht was in charge of Capt. Orrin Smith, and carried a party of friends of the owner. She is most magnificently fitted throughout. She is a stern-wheel gasoline yacht, a pattern that is not very common on the Mississippi. She is 80 feet long and 15 feet wide, and has pilot house set above the forward cabin, and an observation room above the engine room.

E. A. Rounds, a house-mover of this city, rafted down his outfit last night from Princeton by lashing the timbers of his moving utensils together. Mr. Rounds was occupied between Clinton and Davenport in moving houses from the right of way of the Iowa and Illinois interurban line.

The Winona was the only boat down. Those north were the Isaac Staples, George S. Roamer, Lily, Winona and Dubuque.

The water was stationary at 8.50.

The U. S. steamer Lily passed Rock Island today northbound.

MRS. E. STARR OBSERVES A DOUBLE ANNIVERSARY

Yesterday was a doubly happy day for Mrs. Eliza Starr, 921 Second avenue, for it was the anniversary of her 86th birthday, and her 65th year as a resident of this city, and in honor of the occasion she entertained a number of her friends. Often times were discussed, and pleasing remembrances were brought before the gathering.

A City Without Strikes.

San Francisco presents an extraordinary and significant new phase of the labor problem. For two years past, while other cities have been having serious industrial conflicts, not one of importance has occurred there. With the introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, over fifty years ago, a new phase in curing stomach ills was presented, and during those years it has demonstrated its wonderful curative powers so conclusively that it is now recognized everywhere as the leading family medicine in the world. For poor appetite, coated tongue, bad breath, sour stomach, constipated bowels, indigestion, dyspepsia, insomnia, or malaria, fever and ague, the Bitters is unequalled. Be sure to try it. The genuine has our private stamp over the neck of the bottle.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured in Three Days.

Morton L. Hill, of Lebanon, Ind., says: "My wife had inflammatory rheumatism in every muscle and joint; her suffering was terrible and her body and face were swollen almost beyond recognition; had been in bed for six weeks and had eight physicians, but received no benefit until she tried the Mystic Cure for Rheumatism. It gave immediate relief and she was able to walk about in three days. I am sure it saved her life." Sold by Otto Grotjan, 1501 Second avenue, Rock Island; Gustav Schlegel & Son, 220 West Second street, Davenport.

PUPILS IN A RECITAL AT THE HOME OF MISS YOUNG

A piano recital was given yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Alwilda Young, 1042 Nineteenth street, by her pupils in the presence of a large company of friends. Light and classical music, played in scholarly manner, made up the program. The following took part: Walter Taylor, Lester Wood, Violet Lawson, John Paridon, Myrtle L. Donlin, Ernest Taylor, Agnes Paridon, Stella Wilson, Lillian Mortz, Bessie Sangren and Myrtle Summers, solos, and John and Agnes Paridon, and Walter and Ernest Taylor, duets.

EDWIN H. CORBIN AND MISS RAISCH ARE MARRIED

Miss Lucinda Raish was united in marriage to Edward H. Corbin, of Minneapolis, last evening at 5:30 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Raish, 316 Fifth street, Rev. D. L. McNary, of the United Presbyterian church, officiating. Miss Ruth Strumand, a cousin of the bride, attended the couple. The groom is employed as stationary engineer in Minneapolis, where the couple went this morning to make their future home.

Worst of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For 3 years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by Hartz & Ullemeyer, druggists.
